

Howard Newens, CIA, CPA

Chief Financial Officer
Yolo County

Howard Newens, C.I.A., C.P.A., is the appointed Chief Financial Officer, charged with the responsibilities of county auditor-controller, treasurer-tax collector, budget officer and procurement officer. He started his career in public accounting and stepped into local government finance in 1979 at Alameda County as an auditor. He joined Yolo County in May 2000, was elected auditor-controller in 2002 and auditor-controller and treasurer-tax collector in 2006. In 2015 he was appointed as the first Chief Financial Officer of Yolo County as part of the consolidation and modernization of financial functions.